On every hand there lies an opportunity for service. Most occupations require some form of it, but the educator must give his service thanklessly and expect only the satisfaction of serving in return. Therefore, to the faculty of Major Beal, for their unfailing guidance and co-operation, we respectfully express our overdue appreciation.

Endless seem the tasks that confront the school office. Yet above these tedious duties can always be found the friendly smile and helpful advice of Mrs. Marshon. For her unfailing service to the school, we, the class of 1958, wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Louise Marshon.

For her unfailing aid and encouragement through our trials and errors of the past three years, we owe a debt of gratitude to our advisor and friend. As a small payment for this debt we, the class of 1958, dedicate this, our 1958 COLONIAL, to Mrs. Frances Cellucci.

In Memoriam

Jane Ann Nye

The death of a close one pierces many a heart with sorrow, but that sorrow is ever softened when the fun, happiness, and laughter of the beloved is sweetly remembered. Jane Nye was both a true friend and a joyful companion; she will long be remembered as our loyal classmate. Herein we wish to perpetuate her memory.

In Appreciation

Mrs. Roberta Flexer

Mr. Joseph Lalli

Every year, as classes grow, so the problems of an adviser multiply. We, the class of 1958, were very fortunate in having two co-advisers who both understood our problems and guided us in every way toward the solutions. Therefore to Mrs. Roberta Flexer and Mr. Joseph Lalli, the senior class would like to express its heartfelt and sincere thanks to two people who are our friends and advisers as well as teachers.

Class History

We, the hopeful, struggling seniors of 1958, came to the high school full of great anxiety and anticipation. Like the submarine Nautilus which went to sea in 1955, we also entered a sea—a sea of study and knowledge destined to bring us far into the modern world. Ahead of us lay strange and exciting adventures. In the educational field there were the new and different subjects, teachers to get acquainted with, and the memorable mid-year and final exams.

We acquainted ourselves quickly with the many complexities of school and were soon dividing our talents in all activities. The first, about which we were most enthusiastic, was the election of our Freshman Class Officers: William Wyman, President; Gerald Dyer, Vice President; Barbara Banionis, Secretary; and Margaret Woodward, Treasurer. Our Student Council representatives consisted of Valerie Blackett, Gail Johnson, and Penelope Brown.

After the hustle and bustle of elections, we finally settled down to our every-day routine. We highlighted our social life by planning a freshman social in October. Our Christmas vacation passed, and our spare moments being taken up by another class project—Friendship, Incorporated. Soon we found our freshman year rapidly approaching its close.

In September of 1955, we found ourselves branching off into new fields of study. Once again, we elected leaders for our Sophomore Class. Chosen were the following: Paul St. Pierre, President; David Adams, Vice-President; Barbara Banionis, Secretary; and Margaret Woodward, Treasurer. Elected to the Student Council were Valerie Blackett, Gail Johnson, Penelope Brown, and Susan Ireland. As our class project, we sold blue-and-gold knitted hats. To raise funds for our depleted treasury, we held a record hop. Because of the success of our hop, we were able to run a more elaborate dance—Oriental Fantasy. As spring drew near, the best orators of our class vied for honors in the Richard Fipphen Contest. Sandra Mader achieved top honors. The summer months passed quickly, and autumn was upon us. We felt proud to have made the grade.

We had reached the second rung of our ladder, and were about to hold the favored position of Juniors. Being old pros at casting our votes, we elected capable leaders: Paul St. Pierre, President;

David Adams. Vice-President: Barbara Banionis. Secretary; and Margaret Woodward, Treasurer. The Student Council members were Gail Johnson. Valerie Blackett, Penelope Brown, Susan Ireland, and Jane Ryan. Again we found ourselves selling; this year we sold Shrewsbury High School pennants. Hoping to obtain enough money to sponsor our Junior Prom, we presented a record hop. On May 31, 1957 the annual Junior Prom, "Majestic Melody", was presented, the highlight of our Junior year. And to crown our night of nights, Dianna Ahsmuhs was chosen Queen. Her court of lovelies included: Sandra Orne, Sally Marshall, and Gail Johnson. Our last high school summer went by the fastest of all. We drifted into summer on a swiftly moving cloud and came back eager to begin another year.

Here it was . . . 1958. OUR YEAR. the one which was to bring the fulfillment of our dreams. Within a matter of a few weeks we elected our class officers: Paul St. Pierre, President; David Lougee, Vice-President; Judy Molinari, Secretary; and Margaret Woodward. Treasurer. Our Student Council members included Valerie Blackett, Penelope Brown, Gail Johnson, Joseph Girard, Leslie Erikson, Paul St. Pierre, and Susan Ireland, an honorary member.

After a victorious football season. we held our annual "Victory Dance" on Thanksgiving Evening, 1957. The dance will certainly be remembered by by the hockey and football teams.

With the hope of fattening our treasury, we sold Christmas Cards for our project. With our advisers —Mrs. Cellucci. Mrs. Flexer. and Mr. Lalli—we were fast developing our talents as salesmen. Soon after, we selected the editorial staff for our yearbook. Nancy Walsh was chosen Editor-in-Chief. After our Christmas vacation, preparations for our Senior Musicale were started. Victor Herbert's operetta, "The Fortune Teller". was selected. The class worked hard to make it a huge success. Within a few days, we started out for Washington and New York, looking forward to five splendid days of excitement.

Following our Spring vacation, we found it hard to settle down to our routine affairs. Class Day, the Senior Banquet, and Graduation brought our high school days to an end. We were now crossing the threshhold to a new and bright future.

Class Will

To MR. COOKE we leave a seven and a half hour school day to allow him to schedule all the activities of the club-joiners, sportsmen, and musicians.
To MRS. MARSHON we leave the newest edition of that famous book "The Complete Digest of Answers to "Excuses for Tardiness."
To MR. JACOBS we leave the "superior" FORD.
To MISS ADAMS we leave our best wishes for her forthcoming marriage.
To MR. CASE we leave a Medal of Honor for his outstanding service to our country during military maneuvers.
To MRS. CELLUCCI and MR. LALLI we leave our sincere thanks for their guidance during their four years as class advisors.
To MISS CHURCHILL we leave a senior class which doesn't "burst into talk" every time there is a pause.
To MR. CONNELLY we leave a co-operative group of senior girls for him to supervise at lunch time.
To MISS DONELAN we leave an outside protector for her classroom windows.
To MISS NELSON we leave the sole operation of the building heating controls.
To MR. DORSEY we leave a group of future seniors that the colleges will be coming to him for.
To MRS. FLEXER we leave a dead-eye pea-shooter for monkey-hunting.
To MR. FOUNTAINE we leave a fleet of driver education cars equipped with robots that will teach the students automatically.
To MR. HEBERT we leave an unbreakable record for talkativeness set by our girls in '57.
To MISS MANNICO we leave a periscope to see the light of day.
To MR. DONOVAN we leave an automatic supply distributor.
To MR. LAVELLE we leave Craig Sherman's Good Conduct Medal to be enshrined in a niche in Room 15.
To MISS PARKS we leave a "Did You Do Your Homework Detector."
To MISS ROWE we leave a super-highway direct to Maine.
To MISS SAWIN we leave a blank check to defray students' expenses to National Student Council conventions.
To MISS PERKINS we leave a study hall which studies.
To MISS SHEA we leave an enthusiastic commercial division.
To MISS O'HARA we leave complete printing equipment surpassed only by that of The New York Times.
To MISS HALL we leave a sports schedule free of cancellations and the Asian Flu.
To MISS CHASE we leave a hockey squad that takes home all their clothes.
To MR. SULLIVAN we leave a complete wardrobe of Roman togas from Brooks Brothers to make his Latin classes really authentic.
To MR. BERGSTROM we leave a new office.
To MR. KLEMINICH we leave a bigger basket and a lower backboard.
To MR. FORD we leave students who just love to practice and a desk that can't possibly be cluttered.
To MR. VELLA we leave sopranos willing and able to hit high C.
To MR. DYER we leave a school year guaranteed to have no unscheduled vacations.
To MR. JOLIE we leave a bigger, better, broader Room 12 in which he can move around with ease.
To the SCHOOL COMMITTEE we leave our fond memories of Major Beal High School.
To the janitors, MR. BRESNAHAN and MR. MERINGOLO, we leave a world with no dust.
To the CLASS OF 1959 we leave our superiority, our dignity, and our vast, vast knowledge.
To the CLASS OF 1960 we leave our 2:30 club.
To the CLASS OF 1961 we leave the terrible thought that they will never be able to continue their education at good old Beal High.

Prophecy . . .

15th Class Reunion

Yes, it's a great day for the class reunion, folks. The year is 1973, and we're now awaiting the arrival of the class of '58 outside the gates of Interplanetary Park, here on the Moon. This park was designed and constructed by the Erikson, Jette & Thomas Engineering Co. The reunion itself will be held in Moon Memorial Auditorium named in honor of the five men who first landed here seven years ago. These dedicated pioneers are Gen. Brian Smith, Maj. Gen. Timothy Bascom, Dr. Guy Ervin III, Sgt. William Wyman, and Pfc. Calvin Bacon (C.A.P.).

I see some early arrivals now. There's that great Professor of Philosophy, John Ross. With him are his three secretaries, Joyce Clarke, Nancy Folger, and Janet Desrosiers. Over near the main entrance is that well-known threesome: Joan Pecevich, Claire Tinsley, and Suzanne Smith. They're vacationing from their daily space-suit modeling routines. Here come Roger Massad, president of the Hot Rocket Safety Society, and his associates: Gene Buddenhagen, David Briggs, and Donna Loiseau. They tell us Craig Sherman and Bob Heck are still trying to beat Edison with their latest invention, the "Air-O-Doodle".

While the rest of the class is arriving, let's go over to the Sports Stadium, where several games are now in progress. The All-Star Basketball Troupe from Earth has arrived on the scene. Leading the group is that former All-American from San Francisco, Hank ("Shorty") Mitchell, the seven-foot-two wonder boy, with his chief aide, Harry ("Stretch") Keddy. The team consists of such all-time greats as Jimmy Alexander, Dick Smith, Bob Lavoie, and its high-scoring captain, Jack Burns. The team is equipped with its own medical staff, including nurses Val Blackett and Peg Woodward.

There are all sorts of concession stands here in the Park. I see a Dunkin' Donuts shop being operated by Judy Molinari and Joe Mattero. Dave Anderson will sell you a hunk of green cheese for a nickel. Over there is a soft-drink stand under the proprietorship of Oscar Shadbegian, president of Canada Dry, and vice-president Kathy Cronin. Here's a telescope run by the Jenkins & Hunt Optical Co. For only a dime you can actually see the Earth . . . in color! In this bookstore window I can see some familiar names: HOW TO TYPE by Dave Adams; DANCING MADE EASY IN 1001 SIMPLE LESSONS by Karen Ent and Elaine Gaudette; WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN ROCKET ENGINES by Girard and Kimball Enterprises; LIVE AND ENJOY IT by Dave Schoenfeldt and Cliff Pukaite; and HOW TO GET THE MOST OUT OF SLEEPING by Cliff Luce.

We're now looking from the upper balcony of Moon Memorial Auditorium, watching the final arrivals. Wow! Here comes the whole staff of Mad Magazine headed by its brilliant editor-in-chief, Frank Trippi, and his illustrious assistants, Edwin Chapdelaine and Helen Triboski.

I understand that the interior decorating of this hall was done by Diana Chaffin and Derry Riding. The floors and furnishings are supplied by Gerald Dyer, President of Comet Furniture Company. They are kept immaculately clean by a revolutionary new product—"Elbow Grease"—invented by Gerald Jones.

Some of our old gang are now taking their seats at the huge banquet table on the main floor. I just spotted two representatives from the Boston Baby Carriage Company, Sandra Orne and Joanne DeJoinville. I guess they're still trying to find buyers for their new jet-propelled perambulators. Some of the girls are presenting an impromptu show on the auditorium stage. This little song and dance group call themselves the M & M's and have in their company Donna McIlvane, Joyce Manna, Sally Marshall, Janice Molin, Ellen Moore, Carol Morelly, Judy Moroz, and Marguerite Mullen. They sing all the latest songs, including "Martian Melody" and "Around the Sun in Eighty Days", in addition to the ever-popular "Moonglow", and "Stardust". There seems to be a little commotion down there at the head table. Former Vice-President Dave Lougee, trying to get a better look at the M & M's, slipped back into retired businessman Don Ambach's soup plate. However, thanks to the roving eye of John Bowles, maitre d', and the efficiency of waitresses Judy Cooper and Judy Joubert, the situation has been quickly remedied. Standing in a cozy corner are members of the Satellite Ski Club, Richard Kjerting, Ray Sideckas, Pete McGuire, and Bob Whittier. (They prefer to stand . . . they sit too much on their job!).

According to "Variety" magazine, several of our former classmates have gained fame as movie or television stars. Kevan Flanagan and Penny Brown co-star in that latest monster movie, "IT CAME FROM BEHIND THE MOON". Ted Steinhilber and Sandra Mader have the lead roles in Daniel Caspi's modern production, "BEAUTY AND THE SPACE BEAST". Dave Ekstrom has been making a fortune on Steve Dombrowski's TV quiz show, "ASK ME NO QUESTIONS". Dave's category? Spelling, of course! Four former Bealites (Lois Henderson, Janice Guyette, Marilyn Golen, and Annette Porro) are employed as typists by the New York Times. Nancy Walsh is the assistant literary editor of that paper. Carol Zecco and Brenda Crowley are running a space-taxi service between Earth and the Moon. Sally Crossman, Carol Kershaw, and Marilyn Walsh have perfected a revolutionary new magnetic fudge that sticks to your ribs on long space flights. Frances Parsons, a receptionist at Holy Cross College, is merchandising agent for Crusader space helmets.

Well, I see that Joanne Cellucci and Nancy Couture have passed out the menus, and now the guests are placing their orders. The food for this great event was ordered from Jackie Cowan's three-acre supermarket here on the Moon. Barbara Banionis, Yvonne Cleveland, Joyce Liljegren, and Sandra O'Connor are the chief cooks, and chief bottlewashers are Ellamae Shepard, Richard Urban, Carol Hacker and Barbara Jolicoeur.

In the alcoves,Susan Ireland and Mary Jacobsen are waiting to speak on a new book they've written on EXERCISES BEFORE AND AFTER MEALS, and Richard Prince is rehearsing his lecture on the Digestive Processes of the Earthworm. Our Master of Ceremonies, Paul St. Pierre has already said a few welcoming words (to Gail, that is). Now he addresses the rest of the assembly. Everyone is quiet in the presence of this great orator. "Friends, Romans, and anyone else. In the immortal words of Jane Ryan, 'Let's eat, I'm starved!' "

Valerie Blackett .....Secretary-Treasurer

The Student Council is the official representative of the student body of the high school. It is composed of fifteen members who are elected each year by their respective classes. There are four Sophomores, five Juniors, five Seniors, and the Senior class president.

The purposes of the Council are to enable its members to gain experience in the practices of democracy and leadership, to give students an opportunity to participate in finding solutions to school problems, and to help promote a more friendly relationship between the faculty and student body.

The Council is a very active organization. Each year it supervises the class and Good Government Day elections. The Council has under its guidance the Junior Red Cross, Traffic Squad, and Cheerleaders. Each year it aids in the selection of the paid assemblies. This year again the Council has offered the Leadership Training Course for the students and helped in the administration of the point system. The Council has received many problems from the students in the suggestion box. These we have passed on to the administration with our ideas on the solution of these problems. We have sent copies of our Student Handbook and point system to several schools upon their request.

This year the Council sent delegates and representatives to District, State, Regional, and National conventions. Last year Sue Ireland, Penny Brown, and Miss Sawin attended the National Student Council Convention in Roswell, New Mexico, where Sue Ireland led a discussion group and Penny Brown served as her secretary. Sue gave a report of the National Convention at the Area Convention.

The Student Council under the capable guidance of Miss Sawin, faculty-sponsor, and Mr. Cooke, principal, will continue to be an outstanding body which offers many services to Major Beal High School.

The National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was established by the National Association of Secondary School Principals for the purpose of recognizing students who are outstanding in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. At the end of the junior year, seven per cent of the class is elected to the society by the faculty and the Faculty Council. In February of the senior year, eleven per cent of the remainder of the class is chosen for membership. Each member must be in the upper third of his class.

Service is one of the requirements for membership and opportunities for service are offered in the works of the society. With the help of Miss Ethel Sawin, our advisor, money for projects is raised by auctions of lost articles, dues, and a motion picture assembly. Activities include the planning of two installations of new members, the sending of care packages to poverty-stricken familiies abroad, and the donation of a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family in town. Also, this group arranges for the decoration of the War Monument in the Common for Memorial Day and assists in the preparations for the senior graduation in June.

National Forensic League

First Row: B. Murphy, N. Walsh, Miss Churchill, adviser; S. Ireland, L. Antoun. Second Row: Mrs. Flexer, adviser; P. Brown, N. Roberts, D. Robie, C. Rigiero, A. Reetz, Miss Rowe, adviser. Third Row: H. Holden, P. Conlin, V. Sturtevant, S. Flynn, B. Todd, Mr. Cooke. Fourth Row: R. Prince, E. Foster, A. Tucker, R. Engstrom, S. Munson.

The National Forensic League is a national organization which was formed in 1925 to promote a better understanding, through effective speaking ability, of the major issues confronting our country. We, at Shrewsbury High School, are proud to be one of more than 600 chapters which are located throughout the country.

The Shrewsbury chapter participates with many other New England chapters in student congresses, debate tournaments, oratory, interpretation, and extemporaneous speaking. To become a member, a student must satisfy the strict speaking requirements of the organization. Once a member, he may gain degrees of Honor, Excellence, and Distinction, in accordance with the number of credit points he has obtained.

The Shrewsbury chapter has participated in many tournaments and congresses this year. At the first student congress, held at Fitchburg, Brian Murphy was nominated as a representative to go to the National Student Congress. Members also attended the student congresses held at Portland, Maine and Concord, New Hampshire. Shrewsbury entertained many schools at the annual pre-Thankgiving tournament and placed first in the varsity division. On December 7, the Shrewsbury debate team consisting of Herb Holden, Sue Ireland, Brian Murphy, and Nancy Walsh, placed second in the Dartmouth Debate Tournament. The members have also attended for the first time, the Bowdoin and University of Maine debate tournaments, as well as the Clark University and University of New Hampshire debate tournaments. The N.F.L. also participates in the New England District Tournament.

Our chapter takes pride in being one of those instrumental in renewing the state speech tournament held at Clark University. In addition, the organization also sponsors the Colonial Debating Society, Young Debaters Club for Freshmen, and the annual Richard Fipphen Contest.

Through the faithful understanding, leadership, and service to the members, Miss Churchill, Miss Rowe, Mrs. Flexer, and Mr. Nicholson have helped the chapter reach their goals.

Colonial Debate Society

First Row: J. Lorusso, B. Todd, S. Mickett, S. Munson, S. Flynn, M. Livingston. Second Row: B. Williams, R. Gould, S. Larson, G. Fuller, Mrs. Flexer, advisor. Third Row: L. Snow, G. Tammi, V. Sturdevant.

The purpose of the Colonial Debate Society is to train students in debating and formal speaking. In this organization they may earn enough points by interscholastic debating and speaking to enable them to be elected to the National Forensic League.

The activities of the group include debates within the club, debates with the more experienced debaters in the N.F.L., round robin debates and speaking contests with other schools in Massachusetts, and several big New England tournaments. Last year, which was the first for the Colonials, they won the first place trophy at the Laconia Debate Tournament in New Hampshire.

To defray their expenses the Colonials started an annual sale of daffodils on the first day of spring. This has met with great success.

Dramatics Club

The newly re-organized Dramatics Club has enjoyed a wonderful season, under the able direction of Miss Elizabeth W. Rowe. Try-outs were held in January and a group of 35 was selected on the basis of their ability.

First on our list of events for 1958 was our trip to Emerson College for "Drama Day", where we met many students from other Dramatics Clubs in the state. In March we presented a one act play, "The Birthday of Infanta" at the Massachusetts Drama Festival. This colorful Spanish play gave us a chance to display our acting and costuming abilities, and we really enjoyed working on it. Following this event was a Talent Show which proved enjoyable to both the cast and audience. At the end of March, our Dramatics Club was in charge of the banquet decorations for the State Drama Festival in Boston, at which time Mr. Cooke was an honored guest. We wound up our projects of the year with a Spring Prom which we hope will become an annual event at Shrewsbury High School.

This year has been an interesting and active one for our Dramatics Club and everyone has had a chance to "show off" his talents. We are all looking forward to doing even more next year.

Five times a year our Town Crier is published by the Beal High reporters, authors, poets, and artists under the guidance of Miss O'Hara and Miss Shea.

The purpose of the paper, which has been in existence since 1947, is to provide an outlet for the various literary and artistic talents of the students. It has since become a tradition at Beal.

The literary staff and the news staff compile the current happenings in club activities, sports, gossip, fashions, and creative writing endeavors. Our commercial staff types up the "dummy copies" with the help of Tobias Howe and the club secretaries. The photography staff prepares the "picture page" and the art departments adds flavor to the Town Crier.

It is hoped that the future staff of the Town Crier will enjoy producing the paper as much as the staff of '58. We extend our appreciation to the teachers and student body who enthusiastically supported the Town Crier.

Eleven years ago the Junior Red Cross Council was established at Beal High School and it has become one of the most outstanding service clubs in the school. The membership is made up of one representative from each home room. The officers elected this year are as follows: Gerald Ryer, President; Louis Johnson, Vice-President; Sandra Mader, Secretary; Mary Ann Gaimari, Treasurer; and Mrs. Condon, faculty advisor.

During the year, the council has sent Christmas food baskets to needy families in town. The main projects of the year were the gift boxes which were sent abroad, and the making of stuffed toys which were sent to children at home and overseas. The re-enrollment drive was held in February and was generously supported.

The council feels that it has completed another successful year and hopes the good work will be carried on next year.

In 1931, due to crowded conditions in the school it was necessary to organize the traffic squad to direct traffic and keep order. Since its establishment, the traffic squad has performed its task efficiently and has become an important part of the school system. Membership has grown with the school to well over thirty-five members stationed at all points of intersection throughout the school.

The faculty and students wish to thank the traffic squad for the fine job they have done.

The traffic squad extends their deepest thanks to Mr. Jacobs and Mr. Cooke for their leadership and advice in making this organization a success.

Lambda Tau Sigma

The Lambda Tau Sigma of the Tri-Hi-Y Sorority has contributed a very successful and fulfilling year to its members of twenty-three for 1957-58. The Club consists of three sophomores, seven juniors, and a total of thirteen seniors with the slate of officers including Val Blackett, President; Lois Henderson, Vice-Pesrident; Gail Johnson, Secretary; and Peg Woodward, Treasurer. Mrs. Gerald Shelby ably advised us in carrying on our transactions. With courage, honesty, service, and truth as standards, we strive to encourage life in unity with others.

This year, an excellent discussion was conducted by Mr. Cusworth whom we secured through our affiliation with the "Y". Everyone enjoyed a memorable, rainy, overnight at Camp Blanchard. Our annual penny sale was a great success as was the Record Hop, "Jail-House Rock." The annual Christmas Ball, "Christmas Beau," saw an exciting evening with its colors of green and white. Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Nights were sponsored by the Sorority; and we also helped at the Biological Foundation in preparing their November News Weekly.

The Lambda Tau Sigma has truly completed a full year of work, fun, and success.

The French Club was established in 1943 by Miss Gucciardi, a former teacher of languages at S.H.S. Its purpose is to increase the students' interest in France beyond the mechanics of its language by familiarizing its members with French life, literature and culture. Throughout the year films and slides are shown concerning the French people, their customs and country.

Because of the large enrollment in previous years, the club is forced to limit its membership to those students who have attained an average of C or better.

The Club also undertakes various projects such as corresponding with French students throughout Europe. Packages containing foodstuffs, clothing and other necessities have been sent to various students in France, ever since the end of the War.

This year has been very profitable both in knowledge gained and in enjoyment received. In looking toward the future, by enrolling many first year French students, we of the French Club, under the faithful guidance of our advisor, Miss Parks, extend our thanks and hopes for the future.

Band

The High School Band started this year by electing the following officers: Sue Ireland, President; Jennefer Baxter, Secretary; Judy Ponte, Duncan Brown, Pete Wivagg, and Dave Anderson, section representatives. The band managers are James Duke and Brian Burhoe. The Band Council has proved to be very conducive to the good work of the group.

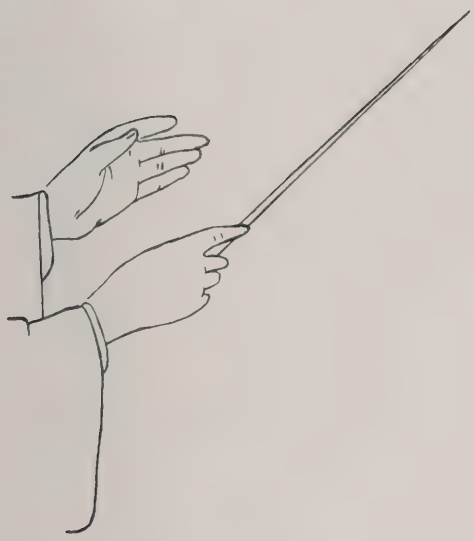
The Band provided a great deal of school spirit by playing at all home football games. They also traveled to Gardner to perform at the annual Thanksgiving Day game.

The Christmas season was enriched by the concert which the Band presented at the Town Hall on December 12th, featuring the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah, performed by the combined Band and Glee Club. Christmas Band assemblies were also held at the different schools.

This year three boys were selected for the Massachusetts All State Band, and members of the group attended the concert held in Sprinfield on March 29th. Several trips were planned for the Band in the spring to conclude a very profitable year for the Band.

First Row: J. Joubert, J. Vuona, D. Battista, D. Black. Second Row: J. Molinari, C. Riqero, S. Horne, J. Guyette, P. Jacobsen, G. Johnson.

Glee Club



The High School Glee Club is under the able direction of Mr. Louis Vella, and consists of approximately fifty members selected from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The organization elects a body of officers annually; a president, a vice-president, a secretary, treasurer, and two managers. However, any person may voice his opinion as to how the affairs of the group should be carried on.

Since rehearsals were scheduled for five days a week, it was possible for the Glee Club to perform in numerous concerts. Two performances were given for the student body in Nee Hall, one of which was the Thanksgiving Assembly. The second assembly, the Christmas concert, was given with the Band, and a special number, 'Twas the Night Before Christmas, was performed.

The Glee Club sang for the third time at Coolidge School, but the main event of the season was a Christmas concert at the town hall which was open to the public. The highlight of the evening was the Hallelujah Chorus, combining both the efforts of the Glee Club and the Band.

For the first time in Shrewsbury the music association held a dance, which the Glee Club helped to sponsor. The theme of the dance was "Swinging Affair" and was attended by many.

Planned for the spring season were the annual Pops Concert and a Music Festival. Numbers which were tentatively scheduled included selections from the production of Porgy and Bess, and a medley of nursery rhymes.

Under the direction of Mr. Vella, the Glee Club has become a fine singing group and a credit to the school.

The cheerleaders of Beal High School are organized for the purpose of inciting interest among the students and encouraging all to support their teams by attending games and cheering for the boys in victory and defeat. The cheerleaders must abide by the constitution which guides a squad of which our school may be proud.

Membership of the squad consists of three seniors, three juniors, and two sophomores and, in addition, one alternate. The cheerleaders are chosen by a committee composed of two members from the faculty, two from the Student Council, and the cheerleaders. Voting takes place within one month after the end of basketball season. The captain is chosen by the squad and must be a senior.

When voting for new cheerleaders each year, one looks for personality, pep, and appearance.

Cheered on by team captain, Carol Hacker, the girls' hockey squad enjoyed a very successful season. Although games with Auburn, Leominster and Ashland were cancelled because of Asian Flu, there was a total of 2 wins, 3 ties, and 2 losses, both losses being to Wachusett. The forward line, consisting of Jane Ryan, Joyce Liljegren, Judy Vigneault, Penny Brown, and Peggy Woodward, showed outstanding offensive play. The halfbacks Betty Anderson, Linda Snow, and Barbara Jolicoeur did an excellent job backing up the forward line. Fullbacks Anne Kimball and Sally Crossman, along with Karen Ent, goalie, prevented many goals. High scorer for the season was Jane Ryan with 2 goals. Peggy Woodward, Judy Vigneault, and Joyce Liljegren contributed one each. The "JV's" had a record of 2 wins, 3 tie, and 4 losses.

Much of the credit for our successful season is attributed to the great patience and coaching of Miss Chase and Miss Hall. We also wish to thank our managers, Nancy Walsh and Derry Riding, for the many oranges they sliced and the games they timed.

We wish next year's Co-captains, Judy Vigneault and Judy Cronin and their squad, a very successful season.

N. Walsh, Manager; P. Brown, J. Liljegren, M. Woodward, B. Jolicoeur, J. Ryan, E. Anderson, A. Kimball, S. Crossman, K. Ent, J. Vigneault, C. Hacker, Captain; D. Riding, Manager.

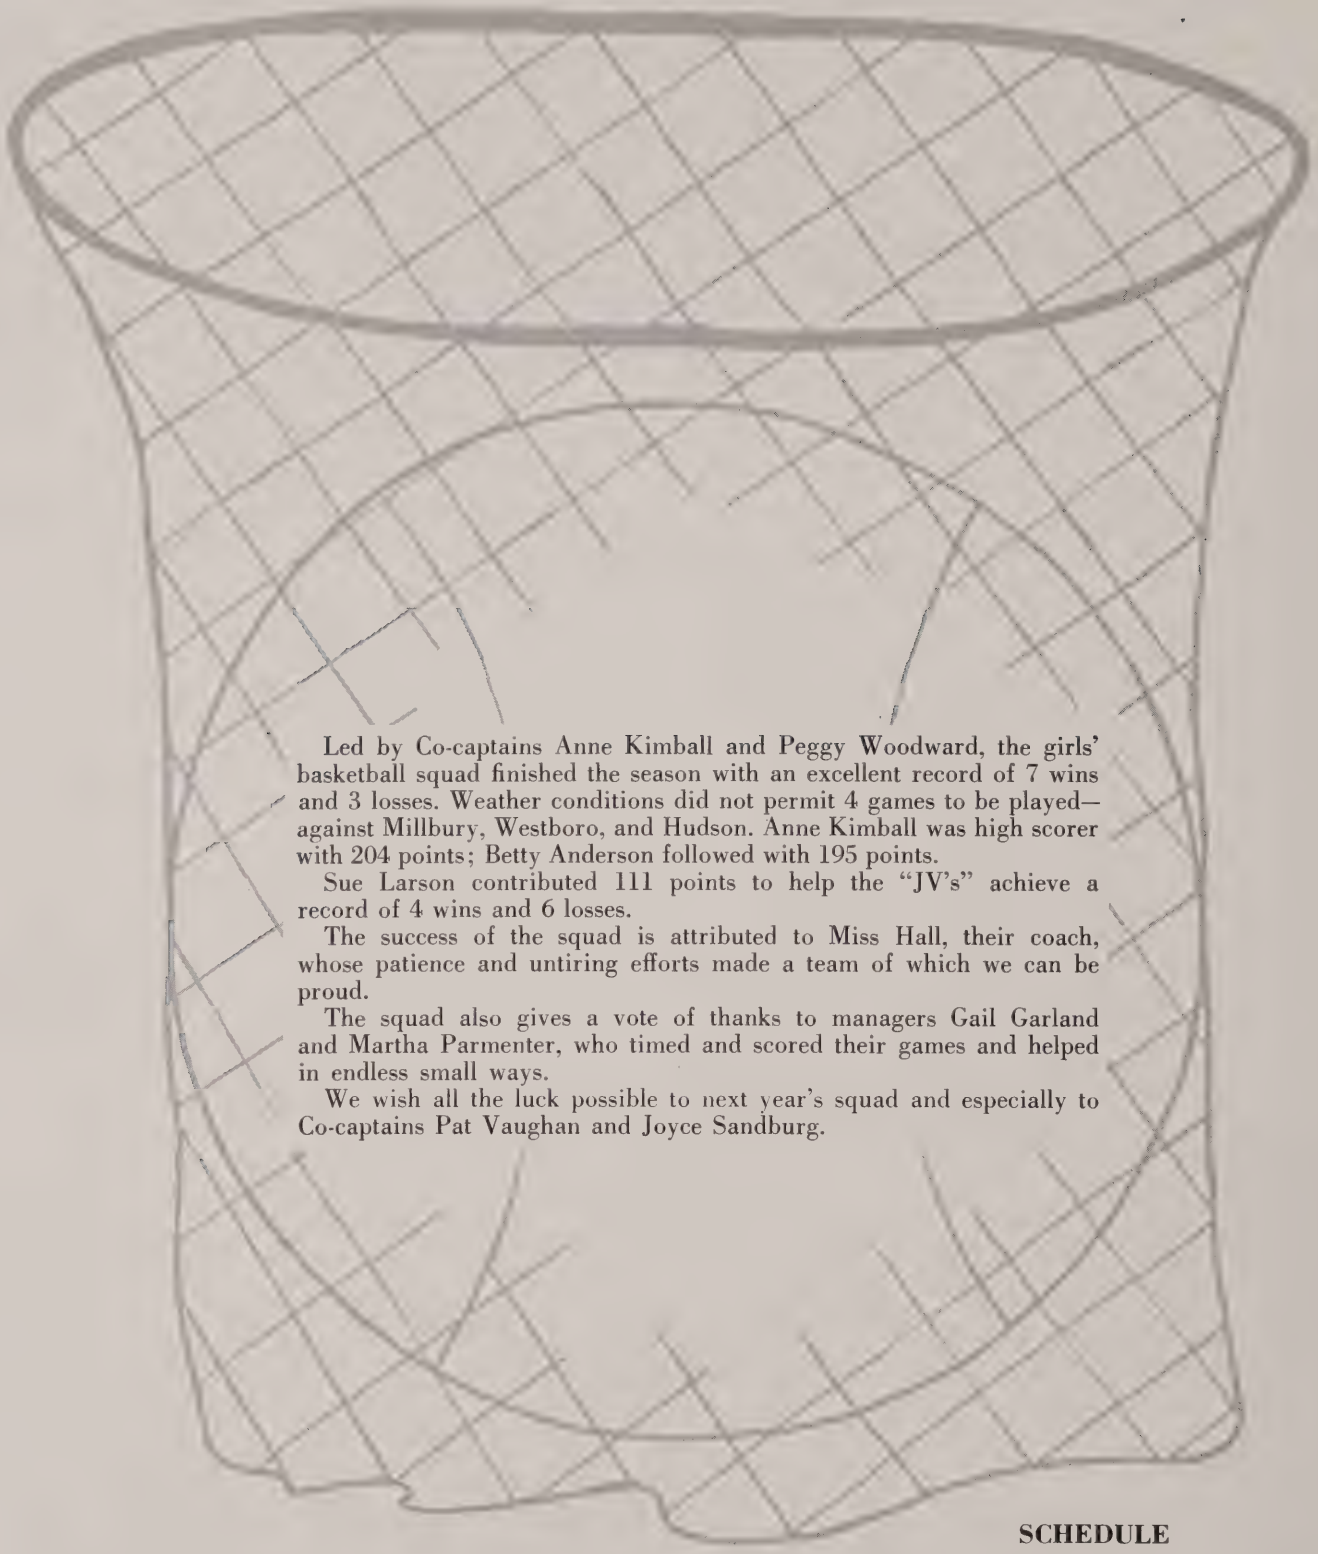
Basketball



Led by Co-captains Anne Kimball and Peggy Woodward, the girls' basketball squad finished the season with an excellent record of 7 wins and 3 losses. Weather conditions did not permit 4 games to be played—against Millbury, Westboro, and Hudson. Anne Kimball was high scorer with 204 points; Betty Anderson followed with 195 points.

Sue Larson contributed 111 points to help the "JV's" achieve a record of 4 wins and 6 losses.

The success of the squad is attributed to Miss Hall, their coach, whose patience and untiring efforts made a team of which we can be proud.

The squad also gives a vote of thanks to managers Gail Garland and Martha Parmenter, who timed and scored their games and helped in endless small ways.

We wish all the luck possible to next year's squad and especially to Co-captains Pat Vaughan and Joyce Sandburg.

Football

SHREWSBURY 7 MARLBOROUGH 39

The Shrewsbury High football team opened the season by dropping a 39-7 decision to a highly rated Marlborough eleven. Shrewsbury was overpowered by the strong and powerful Marlborough line and backfield. In spite of the loss, Dave Lougee and Jack Bowles played inspiring football.

SHREWSBURY 7 TRADE 20

Shrewsbury, in their first home game, was routed by Trade 20-7. Although the Colonials, without the assistance of the first string backfield, lost to a rugged Trade eleven, they played heads-up football under the able guidance of Bill Keville, the new head coach.

SHREWSBURY 0 ST. JOHNS 20

The next game was played at Dean Park against the St. Johns Pioneers. The Shrewsbury High eleven played inspiring ball, but the powerful running game of St. Johns proved to be overpowering. Although St. Johns won, it was a hard earned 20 to 0 victory.

SHREWSBURY 7 SOUTH 31

The Shrewsbury High Colonials then invaded the Athletic Field in Worcester, Massachusetts, in order to meet South High, a strong city eleven. This game was a bruising battle from start to finish; but, the final outcome was determined by the far superior South High reserves. John Rossi, Jack Bowles and Paul St. Pierre played commendable ball in this brutal defeat.

SHREWSBURY 33 AUBURN 19

Our annual game with the Auburn "Dandies" took place at Dean Park on Armistice Day. Shrewsbury finally broke into the win column by trouncing Auburn 33-19. The game was highlighted by the hard running of John Trinder and the excellent passing of John Rossi. As a whole, the Shrewsbury eleven played excellent ball.

SHREWSBURY 19 WACHUSETT 13

On November 22, the Shrewsbury eleven upset a favored Wachusett team at Dean Park by a score of 19-13. The winning touchdown was scored in the final fifty seconds. Joe Girard, Co-captains Jack Bowles and Dave Lougee were outstanding in the line, while Dick Qualey and Paul St. Pierre were outstanding in the backfield.

SHREWSBURY 0 GARDNER 28

With two victories in the last two games, Shrewsbury ventured into Gardner on Thanksgiving Day. The Gardner team was too big and powerful for Shrewsbury and as a result handed them a 28-0 defeat. Though Shrewsbury was outmanned, the team fought every second of the game. It was not only the last game of the season but also the final game in high school competition for seniors Joe Girard, Rick Kjerting, John Ross, Kevan Flanagan, Dave Adams, Ray Sideckas, Dave Ekstrom, Roger Massad, Paul St. Pierre, Don Ambach, and Co-captains Jack Bowles and Dave Lougee.

First Row: J. Marcimo, R. Lorusso, A. Nelson, J. Flynn, P. Bergman, H. Leone, D. Ekstrom, J. Driscoll, H. Leofanti, J. Trinder. Second Row: K. Flanagan, R. Sideckas, R. Kjerting, J. Ross, D. Adams, R. Massad, D. Ambach, J. Bowles, Co-captain; D. Lougee, Co-captain; J. Girard, P. St. Pierre, G. Flynn, W. Vigneault. Third Row: R. Frankian, G. Burns, B. Burhoe, R. Piuze, R. This year's baseball team, under the direction of Michael Klemnich and assisted by Co-captains Bob Jette and Donald Ambach, opened the season April 29, with Northbridge. Although the weather had been too wet to give the boys much practice, The Colonials are looking forward to another victorious year.

The team features a good pitching staff and a fairly powerful batting order this year due to the fact that many seasonal veterans have returned. Despite a tough schedule, The Colonials are expected to bring home another Blackstone Valley League championship trophy. Best of luck, boys!

John Burns

The Shrewsbury High basketball team, under the leadership of Co-captains Jack Burns and Paul St. Pierre, fell far short of its expected goal, having lost many of last year's veterans at graduation.

The schedule consisted of twenty games, most of which were played against the strong Worcester teams.

The season started off with five consecutive losses to the Worcester teams. Then the Colonials finally got into the win column by beating Hudson High. After losses to Trade and Leominster, Shrewsbury rolled over its arch rival, Auburn High, by a score of 55 to 34. The next game was against a powerful Wachusett team and the Colonials lost a close one in the waning moments of the game by a score of 42 to 40. The Colonials then invaded Northbridge to play a highly rated Northbridge five. However, this did not stop the Colonials. The Shrewsbury five defeated Northbridge and as a result eliminated them from the Blarkstone Valley League Championship race.

Upon losing the services of Jack Burns, Gene Buddenhagen, Jack Cowen, and Paul St. Pierre, next year's team will be bolstered by many veterans. Because of this, a championship team is expected. Next year's returning veterans will consist of Brian Murphy, Joe Maurello, Butch Horan, Allen Tucker, Ken Turnquist, John Jasper, Dick Qualey, and Fred Allen.

Crew

Second Row: J. Girard, D. Ekstrom, J. Adams, L. Erikson, G. Dyer.

Due to the excessive icing of Lake Quinsigamond the Shrewsbury High Crew got off to a very late start this season. With many of last year's regulars returning, Coach Burns built this year's boat around veterans John Trinder, Louis Johnson, Dick Kjerting, and Ray Sideckas. The Shrewsbury High eight faced a very stiff schedule this year but Coach Burns was confident that he will succeed in maintaining another fine record.
